Overview

Barrington Brennen continues to conduct seminars for many different denominations (including Adventist, Catholic, Baptist, Church of God, Anglican, Methodist, Church of God of Prophecy, Assemblies of God) and many leading corporations, private firms, and businesses, such as The Bahamas Electricity Corporation, Princes Margaret Hospital, etc. He has conducted seminars overseas in Puerto Rico, St Martin, Jamaica, Michigan, Florida, England, and locally in The Bahamas.

He has been serving as pastor since June 12, 1978 and has served in New Providence, Exuma & Long Island, San Salvador, and Crooked Island (Bahamas). In 1990-1992 he and his wife were called to serve at Northern Caribbean University where he served as the first Director of Social Development and the Associate Pastor of the College Church. Annick (his wife) served as executive secretary to the president and then a teacher in the Office Administration Department. . In 1993-1996 he worked as the Director of Psycho-Education, a treatment program for abusive Individuals at Safe Shelter Inc., in Benton Harbor Michigan. He helped more than 600 men and women with control and anger issues. Barrington also served as the Bahamas Academy School Counselor for four years (1996-2000). See more

MUSICIAN OVERVIEW Barrington Brennen is known as an accomplished bass soloist. He began singing and playing the piano from the age of eleven. His first piano instructors were Mr. George Moxey and Mr. Eric Russell. During his early years of singing, Barrington formed a quartet known as the King's Voices that became very popular all over the island of New Providence

The quartet consisted of Anthony Roach, Elliston Rahming, Perry Decosta, and Barrington Brennen. Later, when Elliston went away to school, Anthony Curtis joined the group. In 1973, Barrington went to Northern Caribbean University, Jamaica, to study for to become a minister of the gospel. While there he joined the Meistersingers (premiere singing group in Jamaica) and performed all over the island of Jamaica. He won numerous gold and silver medals in the Jamaica Music Festival and was chosen as the Most Outstanding Male Singer in Jamaica for two consecutive years. He received extensive vocal coaching and training from outstanding musicians, including Jamaican famous opera singer Joyce Britton. Barrington Brennen has performed in The Bahamas, Jamaica, Martinique, France, and the United States. He also plays the piano and organ. He was the church organist at the Grant's Town Church, Nassau, from the age of twelve until he went to college at age eighteen.

Barrington's hobbies are making and maintaining web pages, cooking, baking bread, singing, playing the organ and piano, surfing the internet, making new friends, and just having lots of fun.
