

Beatitudes to Teenagers

By Barrington H. Brennen

Blessed are the teenagers who never confuses love with lust.

Blessed are the teenagers who develops self control over their desires

Blessed are the teenagers who prefers a few years on loneliness, than a whole life of misery.

Blessed are the teenagers who develops their bodies physically for it pleases God.

Blessed are the teenagers who studies their lessons well so they may develop intellectually.

Blessed are the teenagers who refuses all forms of illegal drugs, liquor and tobacco, for they are not good for the mind.

Blessed are the teenagers who loves and honors their parents, for they will live long.

Blessed are the teenagers who respect their teachers for they will be greatly honored.

Blessed are the teenagers who treats others as they treat themselves for it is good in God's sight.

Blessed are the teenagers who do not cheat or lie in school or at home fo they will grow as children of God.

Blessed are the teenagers who gives their hearts to Jesus when they are young for when they are old they will receive rich reward.

Published by Sounds of Encouragement

Counseling & Media Association

P.O. Box N896, Nassau, Bahamas © 1983