

Mary Elizabeth Brennen

November 12, 1928 to January 7, 2015

This color pencil drawing was done by Gerard Brennen, grandson, in honor of her life and memory.

Mom's wedding day, June 18, 1951

Cake cutting

The Brennen family in 1964

Mary Brennen in the early 1950s

Mary at age 27

Mary's brothers, James and Peter, with Alfred

Mother and Daughter
Theresa Mary

True lovers. Kissing on their 52nd wedding anniversary

The youngest and the oldest with mom and dad

The youngest and the oldest with mom and dad

Christmas day at Uncle James house in 2000

Anniversary Celebration

Chatting with her friend, Dame Ivy Dumont

Teacher Training at the Teacher's College

Days at Bahamas Academy

Days at Bahamas Academy

Parkgate Seventh-day Adventist Church

Ann graduating from high school in 1975

King Alfred and Queen Mary on Royal duties in 2007
At Anson and Opal's wedding

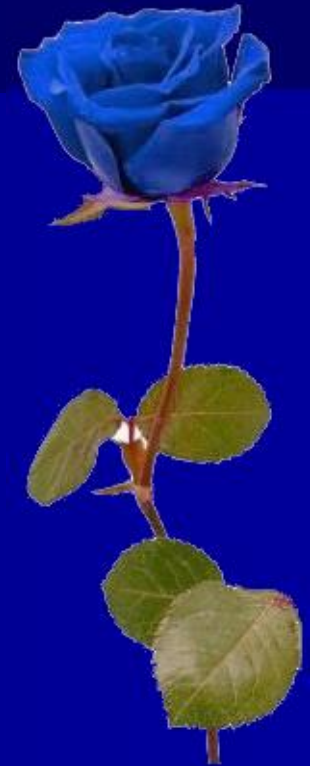

The vice principal contemplating about the day's work.

Judith's wedding day in 1977

"Children, it's time to go."

The educator

Attending an annual conference workers' banquet at Balmoral Hotel, Cable Beach

Her radiance and joy rubs off on everyone.

Meeting Barrington's fiancé, Annick, in 1976

A friendly visit with Stanley and Ruby major in 1953

Caribbean cruise on their 40th Anniversary

Mom while visiting New York in the early 60s

Mom and dad with Gerard and his family

Vernassa and her children with mom and dad

All her daughters, daughter-in-law, and Uncle James

Together for Christina's wedding

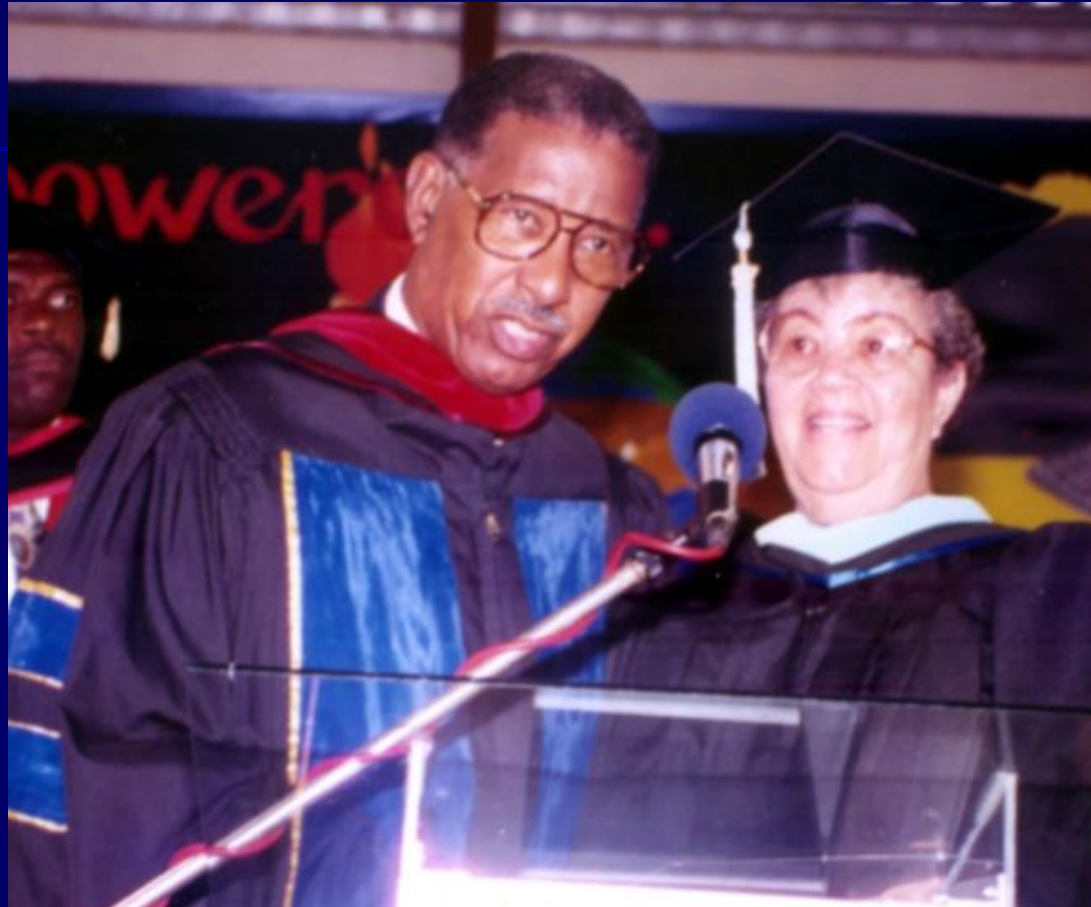

Sergeant Claudia with mom and dad

Ann with mom.

Receiving her honorary degree from Northern Caribbean University, Jamaica.

Interview for ZNS television

The ordination of Pastor Keith Anson Albury

Speaking in church

Christina and mom on her Royal Bahamas
Defense Force graduation

1998:
Precious Pearl
Award

1996:
Queens
Honor

Mary Elizabeth Brennen

November 12, 1928 to January 7, 2015